Memo
To: Files
From: Pat Butenis
Subject: John Sullivan

[redacted] came in today to tell Consul Sanchez and me what he knew about the circumstances of Sullivan' death. (b)(6)

He basically repeated what he had already told us. The body was found at a place where men believed to be Policia Nacional in civilian clothes had previously dumped around 75 bodies. There had been an explosion at 1:00 that morning. There is a house relatively near the site, but he doesn't know who lives there or if they might have seen who brought Sullivan's body.

The bus driver's name is [redacted] and the bus is the [redacted] (b)(6)
